FULL CUPPING NOTES

This Catigua lot presents a nice daily driver in light and middle roasts, with rounded sweetness, and mildly bright notes. The fragrance of the grinds has pleasantly mild sweetness, brown sugar and malt powder, a slight herbal note, and unique umami hint. The wet aroma draws out a slightly more intense sweetness, accented by herbal hints. In the cup, light brown sugar sweetness is accented by pistachio nougat, and a cinnamon hint. The profile improves as the coffee cools, leading to hints of bittering spice, baked apple, and shiso leaf. Middle roasts showed a more aggressive roast flavor that brought out some pleasant bittersweet notes, along with faint fruit, and a tannic aspect to the finish.
